

PROCEEDINGS
BOSTON SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS SECTION
AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

Meetings Held

TECHNICAL GROUP MEETINGS

COMPUTER GROUP

October 1, 1975 — The meeting was held at the Parsons Laboratory for Water Resources and Hydraulics, MIT, Chairman Jakob Vittands presiding. Mr. Richard T. Rigby of Metcalf & Eddy, Inc., spoke on application of a minicomputer to control of a real time parking facility, involving revenue protection, traffic control, and facility records. Attendance, 15.

James N. Jackson, Clerk

GEOTECHNICAL GROUP

October 22, 1975 — A dinner meeting was held at Pound Hall, Harvard University, and technical meeting at Pierce Hall, also of Harvard. Chairman Stiles Stevens presided. Speaker, T. W. Lambe, on the evaluation of several geotechnical predictions.

This was also an official meeting of the BSCE Section, ASCE. However, it was not necessary to conduct Section business at this time. Attendance, 80.

Peter K. Taylor, Clerk

STRUCTURAL GROUP

October 15, 1975 — The meeting was held at the MIT Center for Earth Sciences, Chairman Hans William Hagen presiding. The speaker was Mr. E. Alfred Picardi who was Senior Vice-President and Director of Perkins & Will, Washington, D.C. at the time the Standard Oil of Indiana Building was under design and construction. He spoke of the unique structural system used for the building. Attendance, 80.

Frank J. Heger, Clerk

TRANSPORTATION GROUP

October 29, 1975 — A luncheon meeting was held at the Red Coach Grill, Boston. Chairman Maurice Freedman presided. Mr. Robert R. Kiley, Chairman of the "T" (Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority) spoke on problems of the Authority. Attendance, 111.

Robert J. McDonagh, Clerk

Technical Group

Note: Minutes of Technical Group meetings covering the entire year will be presented at the annual Section meeting and will be published.